WGBH Educational Foundation Supplemental Outreach Initiatives Nov 2010 to Nov 2011

- WGBH is an active supporter (and Board member) of The Partnership (thepartnershipinc.org). The partnership provides connections between Boston businesses and aspiring people of color to place them in positions where developing leadership skills is a key focus.
- WGBH is also a founding member of the Commonwealth Compact (commonwealthcompact.com) an organization of corporate leaders with the single mission of making Massachusetts a more welcoming place for people of color.
- WGBH, on collaboration with PBS recently held its 11th annual Producers Workshop. Focusing on developing the next generation of producers of quality content for use across all media. The program offers an array of hands-on training sessions that connect senior production staff with attendees, helping them fine tune all the skills needed to assure successful completion of production projects.
- This past year saw the foundation-wide retraining in managing employee performance as an integral tool in identifying and developing the talents in employees we have in place. Building a strong team of managers helps support our position in the community as a well-run organization that is a desirable place to work.
- Hosted the Crimson Summer Academy at Harvard University. This program is designed to help low-income, high achieving high school student from our local communities prepare for college. Our hosting activities focus on a series of meetings with key work groups with the goal of helping the students understand the wide variety of career opportunities in the public media industry. WGBH hosted 30 students over the summer.
- WGBH hosted 20 students as a participant in the Open Road to the Real World program, sponsored by a consortium of Boston colleges. Our hosting activities focus on a series of meetings with key work groups with the goal of helping the students understand the wide variety of career opportunities in the public media industry.
- WGBH focused a lot of its recruitment activities in the area of developing our internship program into a year round opportunity for students at local colleges and universities. The program has grown from providing 60-65 positions per year, to now posting over 100 positions. Activities associated with building that program are outlined below.

Internship fairs/networking events/career days:

- Emerson Internship Fair – 2/23/2011
 - Several hundred students
 - Discuss internship opportunities
- Mattapan Youth Council Event at Mattapan Community Center – 6/30/2011
 - Networking with local HS/College students about job/internship opportunities
 - Approximately 60 students
- Harvard Crimson Summer Academy Event – 7/27/2011
 - Career Day for HS students in the Harvard Crimson summer program
 - Hosted by WGBH's HR department
 - 30 students attend

- Job Shadow Day – 2/23/2011
 - Organized with the The Boston Private Industry Council
 - 20 students from Brighton/Allston schools
 - Students are paired with employees to job shadow at WGBH
- Road Trip to the Real World Event – 1/5/2011
 - Job Shadow event hosted by HR at WGBH
 - Students are paired with employees to job shadow, additional career day sessions – hosted by HR at WGBH
 - 9 students attended
- Northeastern Interview Session
 - Day of interviews for a few internships at Northeastern
 - Approximately 12 students attended

Several meetings regarding the internship program with local schools and organizations:

- Meeting with Curry College – 8/9/2011
- Meeting with Bay State College – 8/10/2011
